

Sermon Outline
Acts 8:39-40

“Why God” Experiences”

Main Objective: When our situation _____ unexpectedly, or before we feel ready, we often approach God with a question beginning with “_____”. Sometimes we ask because we are interested in the _____, but other times we ask because we feel like God is _____ from us and we need to get His attention. Examining Philip’s life, as recorded in Acts, we learn that Philip had many “why God” experiences. Yet, in the examination of Philip’s story we are encouraged to learn _____ God is, _____ we are, and _____ God was working through our experiences.

Philip’s “Why God” Experiences

Observations:

1. God was with _____ in his experience.
 - a. In the beginning it seems God is far from you, but later you will look back and see how God was there all along.

2. Philip was _____ for his experience.
 - a. The Christian _____ will succeed in every situation: Bring _____ to God and _____ Others Up.

3. The Answer was _____ through the experience.