

When Obstacles Become Opportunities Acts 13:13-15

Context: Acts 13:13-15 represent the _____ of the second leg of Paul's _____ missionary journey.

The difference between an obstacle and an opportunity is _____.

1. Losing a _____ (Acts 13:13)
 - a. Departure means to move away _____ to make space _____. Another way to say it is, "To become _____ for the more _____." (2 Peter 3:9)
 - b. Keys
 - i. _____ for them to be well
 - ii. _____ our call to relationships, not results
 - iii. _____ what you are doing.
2. Outnumbered and Overwhelmed (Acts 13:14)
 - a. "Went in" means, for the believer, to _____ into for an important purpose—in doing so, to experience the _____ of the Lord's eternal _____.
 - b. Times of _____ were not an obstacle but an _____ amid busyness.
3. _____ (Acts 13:15)
 - a. As believers we don't possess _____ word of encouragement, we possess _____ word of encouragement.
 - b. Conviction is rooted in the _____.
 - c. The parts of the Christian Testimony:
 - i. Life _____ Christ
 - ii. Encounter _____ Christ
 - iii. Life _____ Christ
 - d. He _____ me ruined, running, and ruffed-up and He reconciled me through his _____ on the cross, returning me to relationship with the Father by his _____. How refreshed and reformed I am _____ in a life of restoration.

Response: The obstacle is a temptation to _____ responding and the opportunity is to rely on God in your _____.