

Acts 13:16-25

Context: Paul stands to give a word of encouragement in the Synagogue in Antioch Pisidia. The first part of the homily (v. 16-25) portrays a firm _____; despite who you are, what you've done, or where you've been the promise of salvation is fulfilled by the _____ of God.

The _____ to understanding bad memories/history so that they don't become a vice for the enemy is to remember that our _____ is found in the _____ of God.

Audience: Jews _____ in a God-fearing home, seeking God.
 God-fearers _____ raised in a God-fearing home, seeking God.

Situation	God	Israel
Egypt	Made them great Led them out
Wilderness	Put up with them Delivered them
Judges to Samuel	Saved them (Jg 2:16; 3:9)
Saul	Gave them

Despite who they were, what they did and where they had been God brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as He promised (Acts 13:23)

- Savior is a title designated for physicians and rulers.
- As the physician Jesus brings _____.
- As Ruler Jesus brings _____.
- John 4:42

John's word tells us how to _____ Jesus: "baptism of repentance"

John's work tells us how to _____ Jesus: "finishing his course"