

Jailer: Freedom from Expectation Acts 16:19-34

Context: Luke continues the narrative of the Philippi _____ and demonstrates, again, the proven power of the Gospel to reach the most _____ people. Here we learn about the misery of Paul and Silas's arrest, beating, imprisonment, and then, the miraculous earthquake and conversion of the Philippian jailer and his household.

God wants to do an _____ in your life and use you for an _____ in others' lives.

1. Jailhouse _____

- Prayer and praise are a _____.
- A praying _____ produces praising _____.

2. Prison _____

STATEMENT: Sometimes God opens doors, not to let you _____, but _____ to let _____.

3. Midnight _____

- Evidence of believing is _____ towards others and baptism.
- Baptism is the _____ step of obedience for every believer.